

Jessica is Managing Director and Office Manager at the lab. As well as ensuring smooth running of the company accounts, Jessica is also responsible for DAMAS audits, newsletters, research into investment of new equipment and systems, promotional events and seminars and the CPD management for the technicians.

Jess is also head of human resources and the legal department ensuring all professional compliances are met and the laboratories indemnity and public liability commitments are in place.